STATE OF IOWA, County of Clayton ss.,

AFFIDAVIT

I, the undersigned, being duly sworn, state that the following facts known by me or told to me by other reliable persons form the basis for my belief that the Defendants committed this crime.

Agriprocessors, Inc., is an Iowa Corporation that owns and operates a slaughtering and meat packing establishment at Postville, Allamakee County, Iowa.

Abraham Aaron Rubashkin is, and at all times material was, principal owner and president of Agriprocessors, Inc.

Sholom M. Rubashkin is, and at all times material was, an officer of Agriprocessors, Inc., and manager of its slaughtering and meat packing establishment at Postville, Iowa.

Elizabeth Billmeyer is, and at all times material was, human resources manager of Agriprocessors, Inc., and a member of the corporation's senior management.

Laura Althouse and Karina Freund at all times material, were management employees in the human resources division of Agriprocessors, Inc.

During the period of September 9, 2007, through May 12, 2008, the persons listed as employee-victims in the attached Complaint were employed and permitted to work at Agriprocessors' slaughtering and meat packing establishment. All were under eighteen years of age on each of the dates listed. Throughout their employment these children were exposed to dangerous and/or poisonous chemicals, including, but not limited to dry ice and chlorine solutions. Several of these employee-victims were also under sixteen years of age during the dates for which they are identified as such in the Complaint. Throughout their employment, these children, while under sixteen years of age, were employed in the operation of or tending of power-driven machinery, including, but not limited to, conveyor belts, meat grinders, circular saws, power washers, and power shears.

The records of Agriprocessors, Inc., show hours worked by each of the employee-victims on each of the dates alleged in the Complaint. The records also show that employee-victims under the age of sixteen worked in excess of eight hours on each of the days so alleged, and more than forty hours on each of the weeks so alleged in the Complaint. These records also show that children under the age of sixteen worked before seven a.m. and/or after seven p.m. and, while school was in session, more than four hours in each day and more than twenty-eight hours in each week so alleged. The records of Agriprocessors, Inc. also confirm, as alleged by each of the employee-victims, that each of these employee-victims worked more hours of overtime each week than that for which they were compensated.

Defendant Abraham Aaron Rubashkin was personally in the slaughterhouse, including the production and processing areas, in the presence of child employees, on nearly a daily basis during his occasional visits to Postville. Defendant Sholom M. Rubashkin was the slaughterhouse manager and was frequently present in the production and processing areas of the slaughterhouse, in the presence of child employees. Both afore-mentioned Defendants were responsible for general supervision of all operations at the slaughterhouse. Defendant Elizabeth Billmeyer was a member of senior management and was in charge of Agriprocessors' Human Resources Department. She supervised all hiring and was routinely in face-to-face contact with prospective employees. All of the named individual Defendants, possessed shared knowledge that Agriprocessors employed undocumented aliens. It was likewise shared knowledge among the Defendants that many of those workers were minors. The company's hiring practices encouraged job applicants to submit identification documents which were forgeries, and known to contain false information as to resident alien status, age and identity. Each Defendant, either as principal or as aider and abettor, hired children, retained the employment of children observed working throughout the plant, and/or participated in efforts to conceal children when federal and state labor department officials inspected that plant.
